

The Mission of the Autism Society of Acadiana:

The mission of the Autism Society of Acadiana is to support families of individuals with autism spectrum disorders and to help enable persons within our community to live with, educate, and care for individuals with an autism spectrum disorder.

The Vision of the Autism Society of Acadiana:

The Autism Society of Acadiana, a chapter of the Autism Society of America, strives to create a community where individuals with autism spectrum disorders, as well as their families and professionals dealing with autism, can obtain information about local services and support that takes individual differences, family preferences, and special needs into account.
